The screenshot displays a web browser window with the OneCompiler online editor. The editor is open to a file named `index.html`, which contains the following HTML code:

```
1 <!DOCTYPE html>

The browser's address bar shows the URL `onecompiler.com/html/44hcyk8gs`. The OneCompiler interface includes a navigation bar with links for Pricing, Learn, Code, Deploy, and More, along with a Login button. The right-hand pane displays the rendered output of the HTML code. It features a title "Text Analyzer Tool", a text input area containing the paragraph "reconnect with a more tranquil, natural rhythm. Ultimately, incorporating nature into one's life is a simple yet essential, necessary habit for overall well-being.", and an "Analyze Text" button. Below the button, the tool displays the following analysis results:
